Plaintiff's Unopposed Request for Extension of Time to File Objections to Magistrate Judge

Newbern's Report and Recommendation (Document 70)

Comes now Plaintiff, Alton Ingram, who hereby requests a two month extension of time to file objections to Magistrate Judge Newbern's Report and Recommendation (Document 70) and as grounds for this request states the following:

1. This request is unopposed by defense counsel.
2. The Report and Recommendation ("R&R") was received by Plaintiff on August 15, 2021, and a reply is due on August 23.
3. Plaintiff is not an attorney and is working without the assistance of an attorney.

4. The R&R is 37 pages long and touches on many aspects of constitutional law, federal civil procedure, and Tennessee civil procedure, with which Plaintiff is only generally familiar.
5. Plaintiff is employed full time and works between 60 and 70 hours per week. Plaintiff will have only weekends to work on his objection.
6. Plaintiff has the following preset and largely unmodifiable plans for the upcoming five weekends: August 20-21, court ordered visitation with his son in Fort Lauderdale, Florida; August 27-28, preparing and presenting (virtually) a research paper at a scientific conference in London, England; September 4-6, hosting visitors for his mother who has Alzheimer's disease and lives with him, his sister, niece, and niece's husband, all of whom his mother has not seen since COVID; September 11-12, administering the Oral Board Examinations for the American board of Cosmetic Surgery; and September 18-29, court ordered visitation with his son in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.
7. As such, Plaintiff will be unable to attend to researching and writing his Objections until long after the deadline set in the R&R. Not allowing Plaintiff time fully to research the numerous matters of law would place an undue burden on Plaintiff and would irreversibly prejudice him.
8. This lawsuit was filed in December, 2017, and the currently pending Motion to Dismiss was filed approximately eighteen months ago. As such, granting Plaintiff the requested extension of time will not in any manner prejudice the defendants.

9. Plaintiff has contacted Defense Counsel (prior to writing this request), who has no objection to the extension of time requested herein.

WHEREFORE Plaintiff hereby respectfully requests that this Court grant him until November 1, 2021 to file his objection to Magistrate Judge Newbern's Report and Recommendations (Document 70).

Respectfully Submitted
